

Work Session
City Hall
Fayette, Alabama
December 14, 2021

The City Council of the City of Fayette held a work session at 4:30 o'clock, p.m. on December 14, 2021, in the Council Chambers of the City Hall.

Upon roll call the following were found to be present: Mayor Rod Northam, Councilmembers Virettia L. Whiteside, Eddy Campbell, Tommy Williams and Jerry Nichols. Also present were City Clerk Dawn Clapp and City Attorney Dale Lawrence. Councilmember Aliska Hughes-Monroe was absent.

Mayor Northam announced a quorum was present and the meeting was open for the transaction of business.

TELEPHONE CONFERENCE WITH OPIOD COUNSEL

Mr. Keith Jackson of Jackson Riley reported to the Council on the ongoing opioid litigation and the Endo Settlement. He stated they have been negotiating with the opioid companies and also with the State of Alabama on how any monies would be divided between the state and the local governments. He explained how monies would be allocated between the political subdivisions.

Mr. Jackson reported the case with Endo had been settled. He said they had not expected to receive any money from Endo because they expected them to go into bankruptcy. He stated from the settlement the City would be allocated a gross payment of $10,455.00.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the Council, upon the motion to adjourn being made by Councilmember Williams and seconded by Councilmember Campbell, it was unanimously approved.
